Dear Parishioners and Friends,

You may recall that I announced in an earlier bulletin that our school Principal Bill Donegan has decided to finish his career here at the end of this academic year. We are, therefore, in the process of looking for a new principal for our wonderful school. I have put together a search committee to interview and screen candidates initially, and recommend the strongest potential principals to me for a second interview. The members of our search committee are: Dr. Gerald Lordan, a junior high teacher at St. Odilo, Mrs. Dawn Dion, a primary grade teacher and alumna of our school, Mr. Richard Leja, President of our parish's Finance Council, Mrs. Elva Carrasco, our current School Advisory Council President and a St. Odilo School parent, and Mrs. Dawn Burda, our Director of Institutional Advancement. Please pray for these fine individuals as they work together to identify a strong leader for our parish school.

Today is March 19, and is usually the Solemnity of St. Joseph. Because his feast day falls on a Sunday in Lent this year, the Church has transferred his celebration to tomorrow, Monday, March 20. We celebrate St. Joseph as the husband of Mary on this day, but also recognize him under many other titles: Foster Father of Jesus, Patron of the Universal Church, Patron of Dying Souls, Patron of Workers, and many more. We celebrate St. Joseph with great joy and solemnity on Monday and ask his intercession for so many needs of the Church, the world and our own families. St. Joseph, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary and Foster Father of Jesus, pray for us!

This coming Saturday, March 25, the Church celebrates the other great solemnity that occurs during the Lenten season, The Annunciation of the Lord. This is the day, nine months before Christmas, that the Archangel Gabriel announced to Mary that God had chosen her to be the mother of Jesus, Mother of God. Mary, of course, said "yes," and God's only-begotten Son became man in her womb. Annunciation Day is the day that Jesus actually enters our world as Man, taking his flesh from the womb of the Virgin. We can rightly say that March 25th is the beginning of our Christmas mystery. Because of Mary's obedience, the course of our history on earth has been forever changed, and the possibility of our going to heaven is opened. Mary, Mother of God, pray for us who have recourse to thee!

Because these two feasts are among the great solemnities of the Church, our Lenten penances are dispensed for the celebration of both days. Happy Feast Days to all.

Fr. Bart

Queridos feligreses y amigos,

Como recordaran que anuncié en un boletín anterior que el director de nuestra escuela, Bill Donegan, decidió terminar su carrera aquí al final de este año académico. Estamos, por lo tanto, en el proceso de buscar un nuevo director para nuestra maravillosa escuela. Reuní un comité de búsqueda para entrevistar y seleccionar candidatos inicialmente, y recomendarlos a los directores potenciales más fuertes para una segunda entrevista. Los miembros de nuestro comité de búsqueda son: el Dr. Gerald Lordan, maestro de secundaria en St. Odilo, la Sra. Dawn Dion, maestra de grado primario y exalumna de nuestra escuela, el Sr. Richard Leja, presidente del Consejo de Finanzas de nuestra parroquia, la Sra. Elva Carrasco, nuestra actual Presidenta del Consejo Asesor Escolar y madre de la Escuela San Odilo, y la Sra. Dawn Burda, nuestra Directora de Avance Institucional. Oremos por estas excelentes personas mientras trabajan juntas para identificar un líder fuerte para nuestra escuela parroquial.

Hoy 19 de marzo, suele ser la Solemnidad de San José. Debido a que su fiesta cae en domingo de Cuaresma este año, la Iglesia ha trasladado su celebración a mañana, lunes 20 de marzo. Celebramos a San José como esposo de María en este día, pero también lo reconocemos bajo muchos otros títulos: Padre adoptivo de Jesús, Patrón de la Iglesia Universal, Patrón de las almas agonizantes, Patrón de los trabajadores, y muchos más. Celebramos a San José con gran alegría y solemnidad el lunes y pedimos su intercesión por tantas necesidades de la Iglesia, del mundo y de nuestras propias familias. San José, Esposo de la Santísima Virgen María y Padre adoptivo de Jesús, iruega por nosotros!

Este próximo sábado 25 de marzo la Iglesia celebra otra gran solemnidad que se da durante el tiempo de Cuaresma, La Anunciación del Señor. Este es el día, nueve meses antes de Navidad, que el Arcángel Gabriel anunció a María que Dios la había elegido para ser la madre de Jesús, Madre de Dios. María, por supuesto, dijo "sí", y el Hijo unigénito de Dios se hizo hombre en su vientre. El Día de la Anunciación es el día en que Jesús entra realmente en nuestro mundo como Hombre, tomando su carne del vientre de la Virgen. Con razón podemos decir que el 25 de marzo es el comienzo de nuestro misterio navideño. Por la obediencia de María, el curso de nuestra historia en la tierra ha cambiado para siempre, y se abre la posibilidad de ir al cielo. ¡María, ¡Madre de Dios, ruega por nosotros que recurrimos a ti!

Debido a que estas dos fiestas se encuentran entre las grandes solemnidades de la Iglesia, nuestras penitencias cuaresmales se dispensan para la celebración de ambos días. Felices Fiestas para todos.

Padre Bart
